The Washington School for Girls

An endowed non-sectarian private school for girls, appealing particularly to parents who wish to select a school for their daughters where the highest educational ideals are not made impossible through lack of funds.

An unusually brilliant faculty selected by the foremost educators of the country has been assembled to aid Mr. Philip Cox in conducting the school.

Mr. Philip Cox the head-master has had an exceptional experience in directing preliminary and secondary education in both private and public schools. Mr. Cox is a member of the National Commission of Reorganization of Secondary Education, and the author of widely quoted and authoritative articles on education.

Matriculations are now being received for the Fall term. A personal interview, at the school, is invited, Mondays to Fridays from 10 to 12, beginning Monday May 24. Boys will be admitted to kindergarten classes.

HOTEL ROOF GARDENS OPEN FOR SEASON

With the return of the hot, sultry days the prominent hotels and restaurants are opening their roof gardens. Last week saw the opening of the outdoor terrace and summer gardens of the Plaza.

Atop of the Biltmore Hotel the noted "Cascades" opened for the summer season last Tuesday evening.

The Hotel Pennsylvania's roof garden restaurants are attracting many visitors to the city and New Yorkers to the country environment in most pleasing at this season.

New Garden Inn at New Garden, N. Y., is becoming a popular place for the business man or woman who must keep in touch with the city. The Inn is only a few minutes from the city, and its country environment in most pleasing at this season.

Plans are being rapidly pushed for the early opening of the Waldorf-Astoria and McAlpin roof gardens with the approach of real summer weather, and early in the coming week will see both popular dance-dining places in full operation.

"Paradise," atop of Helmsweber's, Columbus Circle, is attracting large throngs of dancers.
